

Earn up to 2,000 Bonus Points for Your School when you participate in Labels for America™

Here's how to turn your learning, caring and sharing efforts into up to 2,000 bonus points per year for your school.

1. Encourage learning, caring and sharing by participating in programs provided by organizations like the Campbell's Center for Nutrition and Wellness™, National Fire Prevention Association, NEA's Read Across America or other literacy programs, Safe America, Special Olympics, or Stamp Out Hunger™. Or, you can volunteer with a local effort of your choice that supports learning, caring, or sharing.
2. Tell us about it by filling out this Participation Form!
3. Your school will be awarded 500 bonus points for each program your school and students participate in, up to a total of 2,000 bonus points per school year!

RULES: Offer expires 6/1/13. All Schools/Organizations that are eligible for the Labels for Education® Program according to the official program rules are also eligible to participate in the Labels for America bonus offer. For the complete Labels for Education Program rules, visit LabelsForEducation.com.

Your volunteer project can be in conjunction with one of the efforts listed above, or with the local effort of your choice. Students can partner with a local not-for-profit agency, community-wide effort, or complete an in-home or in-class educational program.

One 500 bonus point deposit per project will be awarded (up to a total of 2,000 bonus points per school year) regardless of the number of student participants, number of events, or how many times the project is repeated during one school year. Bonus points will be deposited directly to the school's/organization's Labels for Education bank account within 10 business days of receipt of this completed form.

Labels for America is a bonus offer program available only through the Labels for Education Program. A school's/organization's fundraiser/incentive program sponsored by for-profit organizations, which benefit the executing school (including Labels for Education and similar programs) are not eligible to qualify for a Labels for America bonus.

Campbell reserves the right to have final discretion on awarding bonus points.

Send your completed form to the Labels for Education Program, 806 S.E. 18th Ave, Grand Rapids, Minnesota, 55745. Please feel free to attach any additional explanation of your volunteer project or relevant newspaper articles.

Learning, caring and sharing build a better America – one school at a time.
